PRIVACY POLICY

At KCA Neurology, we are committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring the confidentiality of your medical information. This Patient Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your protected health information (PHI) in compliance with federal and state privacy laws, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

Information We Collect

We collect and maintain various types of information about our patients, including:

Personal Information: Name, date of birth, address, phone number, and email address.

Medical Records: Information related to your medical history, diagnoses, treatments, medications, and healthcare services received.

Insurance Information: Details about your insurance coverage, billing information, and financial arrangements for healthcare services.

Use and Disclosure of PHI

We use and disclose your PHI for purposes related to your treatment, payment, and healthcare operations. This includes but is not limited to:

Treatment: Sharing your PHI with healthcare professionals involved in your care.

Payment: Billing and collecting payments from you, your insurance provider, or a third party.

Healthcare Operations: Quality improvement, training, and administrative activities to maintain the highest standard of care.
